CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I.—The highest bidder to be declared the purchaser, and if any dispute should arise between two or more bidders, the lot so disputed will be immediately put up again and resold, or otherwise, at the discretion of the auctioneer.

II.—No person to advance less at a bidding than shall be mentioned by the auctioneer at the sale, and no bidding to be retracted.

III.—The purchasers to pay down immediately on the fall of the hammer 25 per cent. of the purchase-money, and give in their names and addresses (if required). In the event of any purchaser buying more than one lot, he is not to be entitled to clear one lot without at the same time clearing the whole of his purchases, and any deposit paid is to be applicable to and for every lot so purchased.

IV.—No lot to be removed until paid for. All lots to be at the risk of the purchasers thereof as soon as sold. The auctioneer will not be responsible for the correctness of the description, or measurement, or genuineness, or authenticity of any article; they are believed to be correct, and are sold subject to all errors in description or otherwise, but the auctioneer makes no warranty whatever. All goods to be removed day after the sale.

V.—The auctioneer reserves the right of altering the arrangements of the lots, selling two or more lots in one lot, or in any other way he may think proper; also of withdrawing any lot or lots, and of altering and adding to these conditions at the time of sale, and of refusing the bidding of any person.

VI.—The contract of sale is to be deemed in all cases as made exclusively with the auctioneer, and payment is to be made to him only.

LASTLY.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions the money paid shall be forfeited, and the lot or lots to be resold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) together with all expenses attending such resale, shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages.

NOTICE.—All damage done to the premises in removing any lot or lots by the purchaser or their representative to be made good.

Cheques will not be taken in payment.
